THE FAIRFAX CHOIR

THE members of the Choir are chosen by the director for their vocal and musical ability. The music used is entirely sacred although both classic and modern.

This year the Choir has furnished music for several school vesper services, given a Christmas service at the Basic Methodist Church, and presented a Mother's Day program at the local Presbyterian Church.

Palm Sunday, the Choir, instead of giving one sacred concert, sang two services—one at the Vesper Service at the Basic Methodist Church, and the other at the local Baptist Church.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Miss Alice Suiter, Sponsor

MEMBERSHIP in the Athletic Association of Fairfax Hall is open to everyone who makes a total of twenty-five points. These points are awarded for varsity teams, offices in the association, and individual sports. When a girl obtains 100 points, she receives a Fairfax seal; for 300, a large orange "F," and for 500, a white blazer with an orange Fairfax emblem on the pocket.

Many outstanding events were sponsored by the Athletic Association during the fall term. Among the most outstanding was a Fashion Show held September 9, showing the proper attire for athletic events. On September 23, during a chapel period, the point system and the color teams were explained. This year a new athletic committee was formed, consisting of the presidents of all the athletic groups in the school. This new committee sponsored a dance which was held on October 29.

Due to difficulties in transportation, only two hockey games were played with St. Anne's. Basketball was the outstanding sport in the winter term. Games were played with Waynesboro High School, St. Anne's, and Westhampton.

Spring brought softball and tennis, which are the usual sports of the last term.

THE two main events sponsored by the Boots and Saddle Club this year were the Fall Horse Show on November 7, which was open only to Fairfax Hall girls and consisted of beginning, intermediate, and jumping classes, and the Spring Horse Show on May 8, which was open to riders from other schools.

On March 2, Captain V. S. Littauer, well-known riding instructor and former officer in the Russian Hussars, gave lessons here to riding pupils under the sponsorship of the club.

During the year the club members enjoyed attending near-by horse shows, hunter trials, long rides over the mountains, and suppers in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Thru the Year

Alma Mater

I

Pledge we now our loyal friendship,
  Pledge it, one and all,
To the school we love so dearly;
  Hail to Fairfax Hall!

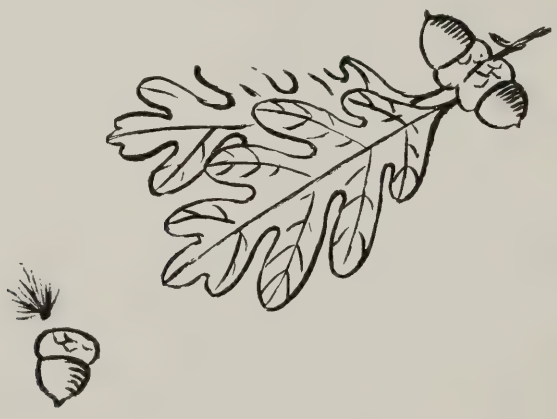
Chorus

Loudly praise our Alma Mater,
  Best school in the land.
Through the years we're friends forever,
  Loyally we stand.

II

Memories shall always linger
  'Round our school so dear.
May the friendships formed at Fairfax
  Live throughout the years.

. . . Fall. Red and brown leaves carpet the earth and paint a vivid streak across the distant mountains. The air is full of a spicy, pungent odor and whispers a promise of the brisk autumn days ahead. School begins. Another world is open to us, full of comradeship, work, and fun. We make new friends, set new goals, and glory in accomplishment. Days slip into weeks, weeks merge into months, and months dissolve into memories—memories of good times, hard work, and happiness . . . memories of Fairfax Hall.

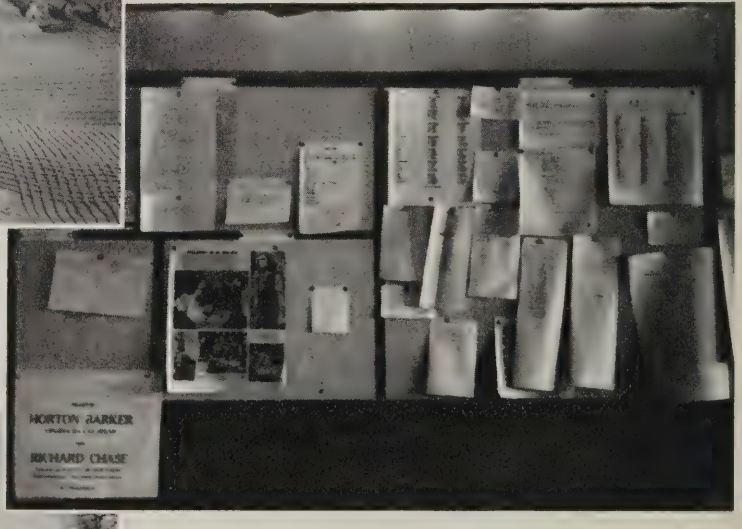


In the Fall

Once more we "don ye olde thinking caps," and you find us hard at work

September 17, 1942—School begins, and there is the fun of getting acquainted!

Stop, look, and remember! Here we find all sorts of news



No time for homesickness. We're too busy with our "interior decorating" and getting to know the roommate

The first hockey game opens the sport season with a "bang!"

The Kick-Off Dance, the first of many good times in the "gym!"

New "friendships" are formed with our neighbors from S. M. A., Fishburne, and other near-by schools

The gym in a different setting—black cats, witches, and the fun that is Hallowe'en!

Fairfax Hall learns First Aid! It's patriotic, and it's practical

Saturday morning walks into town—we do our bit for defense. C'est la guerre!

Remember the Fall Horse Show? Beautiful riding, true sportsmanship, blue ribbons . . .

. . . hot dogs, "cokes," and, best of all, visiting parents to make the day perfect

Thanksgiving—one of our special days for thinking of others as well as having a wonderful time ourselves

S. M. A. parades . . . There is something about a soldier! . . .

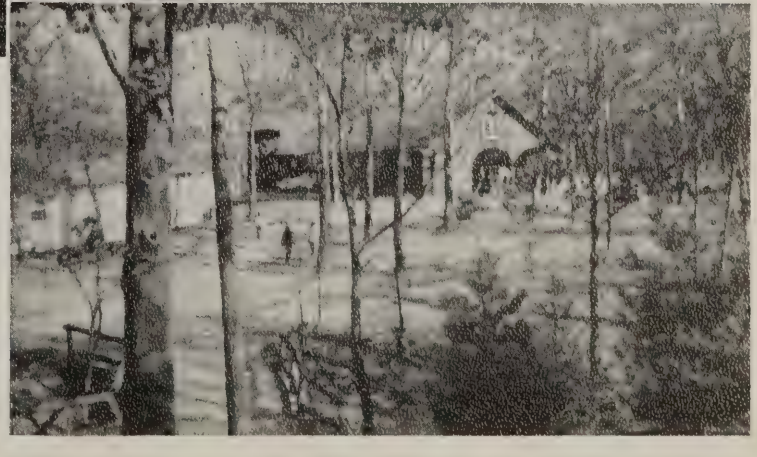
November 19th, and the inspiring music of Vladimar Hafskey's concert program

Memories of the year just wouldn't be complete without these reminders of the tiniest of our Fairfax Family—Nancy! . . .

. . . and Harry Nash

. . and Little Ben Gates

Candlelight, the rustle of taffeta, and an "extra special" meal!—one of our formal dinners



When classes are over, we head for the stables either to ride or to continue on a hike to "Dr. Richardson's"

. . . Winter. Our campus is a fairyland of peaceful whiteness. Sparkling eyes, a sprig of holly, happy laughter, and the far-off sound of Christmas carols all add to the enchantment. Vacation . . . and that link in our chain between school and home is welded even firmer. Returning, we accept the challenge of a new year and resolve to be better friends, finer girls, in 1943. With new zeal we turn to our work and reach new heights in achievement and attainment. As the earth sleeps, the hour hand flies . . . and we make memories.

In the Winter

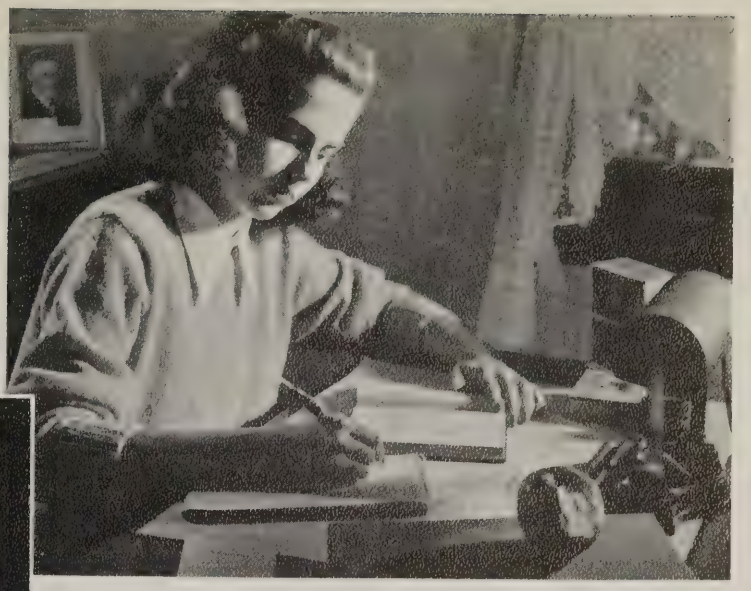
"The Doctor of Lonesome Folk" . . . those hidden talents brought to light, and our Christmas spirit knows no bounds!

More team work and fun as the basketball season "shifts into high" . . .

Soft lights, sweet music, and Christmas trees . . . the dining room and us in our "best bib and tuckers" . . . all of these make up the thrill of the High School Senior Ring Figure!

No more days 'til vacation—
Now we go to the station!

Vacation is over, and there are many good times ahead. Remember the sleigh rides down the long front hill?



The thermometers rise as we loan our dimes and dollars to Uncle Sam. We went "over the top" on our Bond Drive . . . remember?

Horrors! Exam time! Need we say more?

Pep, enthusiasm . . . . School spirit at its best— "C'mon yell!"

No curls! No make-up! . . . but the good times had here are "tops" in any season

Slightly "de-glamourized," but all for the sake of drama. Remember the Fairfax Players Initiation?

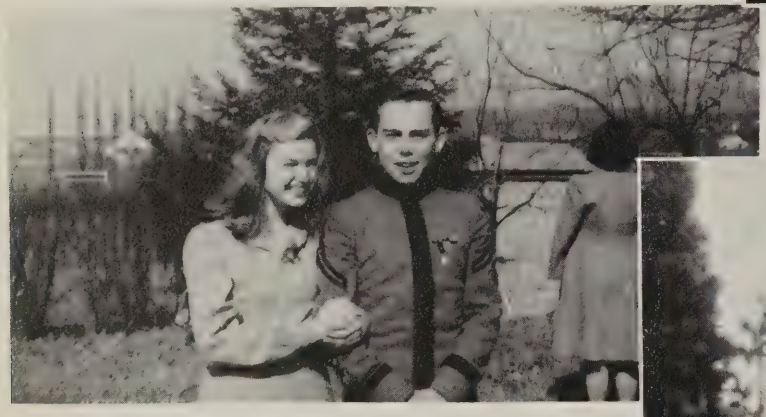
. . . Spring—and the whole world awakes. Sleeping beauty, kissed by the sun, comes forth now in breath-taking loveliness and splendor. The campus is an emerald sea against a back-drop of royal blue. We feel reborn—a strange exhilaration pounds in our pulses as we stand in awe at the beauty of our world. The sun's warm rays penetrate the farthest corners of our hearts, and happiness and laughter prevail. The fragrant breeze is soft and refreshing and carries with it a hint of the drowsy, warm days to come. Cares and trouble vanish as we glory in the miracle of living. . .

In the Spring

March 5th, and we welcome a new organization to our campus. Congratulations to the eleven new members of the Fairfax Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools

We give willingly and generously. Our Red Cross drive was a big success!



Our Sunday Vesper Programs take on an even deeper meaning when the setting for them is the lovely outdoor pool

In the spring the front campus is beautiful . . . especially when dotted with uniforms!

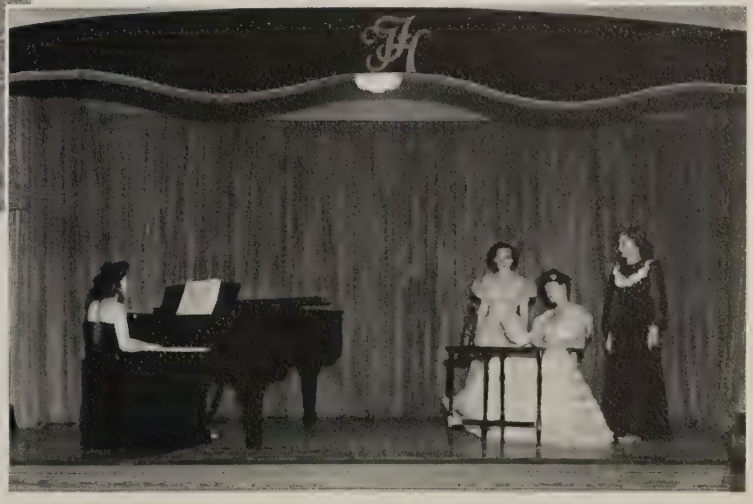
March 24th, and the audience rocks and rolls to the antics of the hillbillies in "Sparkin'" . . .

Memories of that "one-act bill" wouldn't be complete without the thought of Jackie and "Smokie" making "Love in a French Kitchen!"

. . . and settles down to a little more serious mood for "The Purple Door Knob"

With spring come, too, some real "work-outs" on the tennis courts

Among the most pleasant of all our Fairfax memories are those of Mrs. Gates—her sweetness and kindness and her fun



April 3rd, and "Clutie's" long-awaited operas fulfill our greatest expectations! We marvel first at "The Marriage of Figaro"

None of us will forget the pleasure and fun of Mr. and Mrs. Carter's visit with us, nor the beauty of Mr. Carter's concert

Remember the Apollo Choir? . . . the last and one of the loveliest of all our concert programs!

May Day . . . and the never-to-be-forgotten memory of the loveliest of all the Fairfax Traditions

Other scenes from the operas . . . "Martha"

"Lohengrin"

One of the highlights of the closing days of school is the Fairfax Spring Horse Show

. . . and "Hansel and Gretel"

Graduation! And the chain that is Fairfax is for some of us complete. Though we part with regret, we have gained three priceless possessions—preparation for the future, lasting friendships, and these . . . our memories of Fairfax Hall

. . . Summer. Graduation—and the familiar ache that comes with the realization of parting. Laughter and excitement are mingled with tears and goodbyes. Looking back, we see a year of companionship, accomplishment, and pleasure. It has been a wonderful experience and one that we shall never forget. Perhaps it has been full of "ups and downs," but each one holds a special meaning for us all. This year is ours—it is a part of our being. No matter what we do or where we go, it will always be here. We have only to lift the lid of our hearts and find there our memories—memories of Fairfax Hall—ready to be taken out and relived at any time. . .

In the Summer

The Chain and Anchors Song

Clang, clang, clang on the anvil
  On the campus of our Fairfax Hall.
To her daughters who live in every country,
  Fairfax Hall sends out her call.
Clang, clang on the anvil—
There are links to bind us together, one and all.

Clang, clang, clang on the anvil!
  And the flames of the forges leap.
Tomorrow we shall all scatter
  And go forth new victories to reap.
Clang, clang on the anvil,
We will weld our friendship together, one and all.

Clang, clang, clang on the anvil!
  And the sparks from our links do fly.
Fairfax with banners high and waving
  Bids her daughters a very fond good-bye.
Clang, clang on the anvil,
Welding links to lengthen the chain of Fairfax Hall.

Clang, clang, clang on the anvil
  On the campus of our Fairfax Hall.
To her daughters who live in every country,
  Fairfax Hall sends out her call.
Clang, clang on the anvil—
There are links to bind us together, one and all.

Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang!

"Having a wonderful time—

wish you were here!"

THIS has been a glorious year here at Fairfax Hall. We've had fun—yes, and we've accomplished much. Now we're looking ahead to another colorful fall, exciting winter, promising spring. Some of us are graduating soon. These we will remember and miss. But their going will open doors to a new group to join us for 1943-44.

Do you know someone—a sister, cousin, friend—who would enjoy and benefit by a year at Fairfax Hall? Give her name and address to the office today.

A College Annual requires the undivided interest and attention of Editor, Business Manager and Publisher if it is to present that much desired appearance of Character.

¶ For that reason, Everett Waddey Company handles only a limited number of annuals each year—a limited number so as to permit proper service.

¶ Everett Waddey Company of Richmond, Virginia, alone was responsible to the Staff of Chain and Anchors for 1943 for the correct manufacture of Chain and Anchors.
